

I want to be able to use Relay to contact anyone anywhere without the fuss of using just one server, similar to my hearing sister and brother. If FCC would open the service for us to do that it would not make me feel inferior because I cannot hear.